The High Springs Community Theater

PROUDLY ANNOUNCES ITS 19TH SEASON

HSCT is pleased to once again bring you six outstanding productions for the price of five. We make every effort to bring to the community a mix of plays that are both entertaining and uplifting. This coming season is no exception. For many people it is hard to imagine that 2012 will see HSCT producing its 19th season of quality theater. All of our plays are produced by the hard work of volunteer actors, directors, designers, production crews and hospitality workers. Why do they do it? They do it for you and because they love doing it.

Even with the great efforts of our volunteers, NO season is possible without the support of our audiences, patrons and financial supporters, so please remember to reserve these dates:

February 10-March 4 – Neil Simon’s THE ODD COUPLE - This classic comedy opens as a group of the guys assembled for cards in the apartment of divorced Oscar Madison. And if the mess is any indication, it's no wonder that his wife left him. Late to arrive is Felix Unger who has just been separated from his wife. Fastidious, depressed and none too tense, Felix seems suicidal, but as the action unfolds Oscar becomes the one with murder on his mind. When the clean-freak and the slob ultimately decide to room together, the odd couple is born with hilarious results.

April 13-May 6 – Ira Levin’s DEATHTRAP - The longest-running comedy-thriller in Broadway history, this ingeniously constructed play offers a rare and skillful blending of two priceless theatrical ingredients – gasp-inducing thrills and spontaneous laughter.

June 15-July 8 – A.R. Gurney’s touching romantic comedy Sylvia tells the story of Greg and Kate, a middle-aged couple who have returned to the city after years of living in the suburbs. Greg, who is having a terrible time at work, takes the afternoon off. Wandering mindlessly in the park he finds Sylvia, an adorable stray dog. Sylvia offers Greg an escape from the frustrations of life, but Kate begins to see the dog as a rival.

August 10-August 19th – SUMMER YOUTH PRODUCTION
To Be Announced

October 5-October 28 -- Bram Stoker's DRACULA - In this new adaptation, playwright Leroy Clark returns to the novel to re-imagine the vampire story, adding some humor, and re-locating the people and events of Stoker's novel to the Southern town of New Orleans at the beginning of the jazz age.

November 30-December 16 – CHRISTMAS BELLES BY Jessie Jones, Nicholas Hope and Jamie Woolen – A Church Christmas program spins hilariously out of control in this in this Southern farce about squabbling sisters, family secrets, a surly Santa, a vengeful sheep and a reluctant Elvis impersonator.

On the sheet enclosed you will find two very important forms:

1. 2012 SEASON TICKET ORDER FORM

Season Tickets are one of our main revenue streams. An excellent advantage to these flex tickets – is they can be redeemed for any show in any multiple.

2. SPONSORSHIP FORM

For as little as $25 you can help HSCT continue its growth and development. All sponsors are acknowledged in our program and our website.

The beauty of The High Springs Community Theater is that it is YOUR theater. It is your children, your friends, and your neighbors sharing a passion. We wish to thank you for your support and hope to see you at the theater.

Sincerely,

Arlene Levine
President
